

UAHS Band Boosters Meeting, October 13, 2020 Zoom: 7-8 PM

- I. Call to order – 7pm
- II. President- Amanda Reed did introductions, welcome, thanked everyone for flexibility and patience and introduced fundraising committee for report
- III. Wal Ozello recognized Becky McClung and Ronna Porterfield for their hard work. 99pledges fundraiser brought in $8,600. Huge thank you to Becky. Wal indicated that extra efforts with Facebook advertising and emails really helped. There was discussion about timing and maybe incorporating the fundraising with Labor Day Arts performance in the future. Dine around events have brought in money for general fundraisers - City BBQ (Sept) raised $240 Chipotle (Oct) raised $260. November event is TBD
 - a. Flower sale is a personal fundraiser occurring right now emails were sent to families. Delivery expected the Thursday before thanksgiving.
- IV. Uniforms- Amanda gave recognition to Mickey Merritt for coordinating the ordering of jackets for all the band members, in less than 10 days. Currently all uniforms are in storage at the dry cleaners (except for senior class uniforms). Concerned about the weather, Mr. Fessler requested that the boosters purchase jackets for the band. Amanda shared that this year's budget could cover the cost of the jackets.
- V. Senior recognition – Amanda introduced Christina Charles Beery who shared ideas for recognizing the seniors this spring. There was discussion about what the seniors missed from band camp and what they would still like to do.
- VI. Senior Night at the Marv – Amanda and Mr. Fessler recognized Jurianne for coordinating the logistics of the evening. Shannon DeJong reported on behalf of Jurianne. There was discussion about what went well and new things to consider next year.
- VII. Old Business – there was discussion about the topic of term limits on executive board positions and opportunities to engage new families in committee chair positions. Amanda suggested a subcommittee convene to discuss. She encouraged people to email her if interested.
- VIII. Directors report- Mr. Fessler acknowledged the Boosters for all they did to help with the marching season. He mentioned the possibility of an indoor concert. Logistics are still be sorted, but he indicated that there would be no audience and that the students can fit in the auditorium while respecting social distancing guidelines. He is looking into options for live streaming. Mr. Fessler did field questions about Covid, indicating that the school would provide notification to families if a case were confirmed among the students. There was discussion about the precautions that the band has put in place to limit contact and exposure (i.e. distancing during practice and performances, instrument covers, etc.)
- IX. Meeting adjourned at 8:00
